I have completed a semester on my own and I am currently making Satisfactory Academic Progress (no supporting documentation needed).

Written Statement of Extenuating Circumstances

Clearly state the extenuating circumstances which you believe caused you to not meet one or more of the measures of the standard of Satisfactory Progress for Financial Aid recipients. Extenuating circumstances could include illness, death of a family member, emergency, and/or personal tragedy. All circumstances will be evaluated by the committee.

You must also include in your statement how your situation has changed that will now allow you to achieve satisfactory academic progress. Examples: resolution of circumstances, health changes, moved to new residence, etc.

Attach documents validating the extenuating circumstances

Documentation may include:

- A written statement from a medical or mental health professional, your academic advisor, or a credible professional, such as a member of the clergy or other college or university official, of the impact of an illness/emergency on your academic performance. Please make sure dates are included. Letters from the professional community must be on letterhead.
- A copy of a bill for services rendered by a medical or mental health professional.
- An objective report of an occurrence such as police report, divorce documents, obituary, insurance damage reports for natural disasters, bill for services related to an emergency, etc.
