

J-1 INSURANCE NOTIFICATION FORM

Sickness and accident insurance is mandatory for all J- 1 Exchange Visitors and J-2 dependents “during the period of time that an exchange visitor participates in the sponsor’s exchange visitor program.” See page 2 for a full listing of the insurance requirements. U.S. Department of State regulations state that if the sponsor determines that the exchange visitor or any accompanying spouse or dependent willfully fails to remain in compliance with the insurance requirement, that the sponsor shall terminate the exchange visitor’s participation in its program.

The International Services Office at FGCU does not have the authority to waive these Federal insurance requirements for any Exchange Visitor or dependents.

NOTE 1: If you currently have insurance in your home country, please review it to determine whether or not it meets the minimum requirements. If you believe your current insurance meets the requirements, have your insurance company complete and return the Sickness and Accident insurance Verification Form to the FGCU International Services.

NOTE 2: If you wish to purchase health insurance upon arrival, please note that a semester/year health insurance policy is available for purchase through the FGCU Student Health Services. This policy meets all federal requirements for health insurance.

NOTE 3: If you wish to purchase short-term insurance for a period shorter than one semester, contact FGCU International Services Office for other Insurance resources.

NOTE 4: A visitor who will be covered by FGCU’s employee insurance will most likely have to purchase supplemental insurance to ensure coverage of the full dates of the program (i.e., to cover that period of time from when the program starts to when the insurance benefits begin, usually a one-month period); in addition, separate coverage for medical evacuation and repatriation will be required since these features are not part of the university’s policy.

It is the responsibility of the exchange visitor to provide proof to the FGCU International Services that insurance is maintained during the entire J-1 program. Failure to maintain coverage on the J-1 visitor and the J-2 dependents may result in termination of the visitor’s program.

Please read and sign the statement below, then return it to the International Services Office.

- (g) An accompanying spouse or dependent of an exchange visitor is required to be covered by insurance in the amounts set forth in Sec. 514.14(a) above. Sponsors shall inform exchange visitors of this requirement, in writing, in advance of the exchange visitor's arrival in the United States.
- (h) An exchange visitor who willfully fails to maintain the insurance coverage set forth above while a participant in an exchange visitor program or who makes a material misrepresentation to the sponsor concerning such coverage shall be deemed to be in violation of these regulations and shall be subject to termination as a participant.
- (i) A sponsor shall terminate an exchange visitor's participation in its program if the sponsor determines that the exchange visitor or any accompanying spouse or dependent willfully fails to remain in compliance with this section.
