

THAT'S NOT FUNNY. I don't like what you just said. Is there anyone I can call for you?
 Am I the only one who is uncomfortable with that? Are you OK?
 That's illegal – you could get into serious trouble.
Is everything OK over here?
 I'm saying something because I care about you.
Do you want to leave with him/her? Is there any way I can help?
I'm calling for help. Can we walk you home? I'M CALLING 911.

Often the person being harmed feels alone, embarrassed, and scared. You can intervene by speaking up and saying something appropriate to the situation.
