

FLORIDA GULF COAST UNIVERSITY
ACADEMIC & EVENT TECHNOLOGY SERVICES
WHAT'S NEW? – ACADEMIC & EVENT TECHNOLOGY (AET)
Academic Year 2014-2015

- ✦ Over $650,000 in new and upgraded academic technology installations including:
 - ✓ All AB7 classroom and lab PC's replaced
 - ✓ Mac computers located in Reed Hall and Arts Complex classrooms and labs upgraded
 - ✓ Teaching podium systems upgraded – including projectors, document cameras, touch panels – in the Arts Complex and the Broadcast Building
 - ✓ LCD flat panel displays replaced in Reed Hall seminar rooms
 - ✓ Wide screen computer monitors installed in open student lab located in Reed Hall room 208
 - ✓ Additional equipment available for faculty loan, including webcams and laptops

- ✦ Virtual Lab “seating capacity” expanded – For more details visit <http://aets.fgcu.edu/vlab.asp>.

- ✦ Lecture Capture pilot launched – Webcams and software installed in limited number of classrooms to facilitate video and audio recording of course sessions. Recordings will be available to students on-line for lesson reinforcement/supplemental instruction.

- ✦ New large-enrollment computer classroom – Lutgert classroom 2210 has been renovated to accommodate 46 student computer seats while AB7 classroom 127, with 72 student computer seats remains on-line for large enrollment classes.

- ✦ Over 1,000 student and podium teaching station computers re-imaged with updated academic software.

MAC & PC STUDENT LAB HOURS EXTENDED!

The Provost's Office has allocated funds that will keep both our Mac and PC student lab doors open a bit longer every day. Each of these labs is fully equipped with student workstations that run all course-related software titles. There are print stations also installed at each location. AET student technicians will be monitoring these labs and are available to answer any technology questions. So stop by and visit us during our new hours of operation:

Mac Computer Lab/Reed Hall Room 250

PC Lab/Ben Hill Griffin Bldg. Room 208

New Hours: Monday – Friday, 7:30am – 8pm

WE ARE ON CAMPUS TO HELP YOU WHENEVER CLASSES ARE IN SESSION!

- Stop by our main office, located in Ben Hill Griffin, Room 117,
- Call us at (239) 590-7100...
- Or, you can visit our website <http://aets.fgcu.edu/> for all of your academic technology, equipment loan or special event needs!